Weekly Summary Report

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
07/04/16	Distressed Swimmer	Biscayne Bay W/Haulover Bridge
Narrative / Comments
While patrolling the intercostal waterways, the Bal Harbour Police marine patrol observed a swimmer struggling against the outgoing tide. The officers realized the rip currents were forcing the swimmer toward the Haulover Bridge and Inlet. The officers maneuvered the vessel allowing them to retrieve the swimmer safely, which did not sustain any injuries and was subsequently returned to her vessel.

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
07/04/16	Distressed Swimmer	Haulover Sandbar
Narrative / Comments
While patrolling in the intercostal waterways, the Bal Harbour marine patrol officers received a request from a boater for emergency assistance at the Haulover Sandbar. The marine officers arrived and located a female in the bay struggling with the tidal current. The officers successfully retrieved the female from the bay and returned her to a nearby vessel. The female was not injured.

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
07/04/16	Arrest Narcotics Violation	10200 Block on the Beach
Narrative / Comments
The Bal Harbour Police Department received an anonymous call in reference to individuals on the beach smoking marijuana. An officer located two males who were indeed smoking marijuana cigarettes. The individuals were arrested and released on a promise to appear in court at a later date. The contraband was impounded for evidence and placed in a police department property locker.

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
07/04/16	Independence Day Celebrations	Bal Harbour Beach/Jetty
Narrative / Comments
In preparation for the annual Bal Harbour Village Independence Day Celebration events, the Bal Harbour Police Department devised a comprehensive operational plan outlining the police department's response in order to ensure the safety and security of all attendees at the event. The Independence Day events were successful with no significant incidents reported.
