MARIA BONTA DE LA PEZUELA

Maria Bonta de la Pezuela joined Sotheby's in 1997. In 2005, she was named senior specialist of Latin American art and soon after the Senior Vice President, Director, Americas. Maria has a Master's degree in Art History from the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México where she specialized in Chinese export porcelain for the Mexican colonial market. Among many achievements, her book on this subject and catalogue of the collection of the Museo Nacional del Virreinato was awarded the Premio García Cubas by the Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia (INAH). In 2016, Maria left Sotheby's to work independently.

VIVIAN PFEIFFER

Vivian Pfeiffer is a specialist in Latin American and Contemporary art. She spent 25 years at Christie's where she held a variety of positions including running its Latin American Art auctions; developed the Contemporary art market in Latin America as International Contemporary Art Senior Specialist; run the company's operations in the Southeast of the US as Managing Director; headed Christie's North American and Latin American Regional Offices; and headed, organized and structured Christie's Private Sales division in the Americas and Asia. Vivian is very involved in the arts community in Florida, where she organized exhibitions at the Lowe Art Museum and is a board member of Locust Projects. Vivian holds a Bachelor in Business Administration and an MBA. In January 2017, Vivian will join Phillips as Deputy Chairman for the Americas.
