07/29/16	Misdirected Turtle Hatchlings	100 Block of 96 th Street
Narrative / Comments
While conducting beach checks officers located several misdirected turtle hatchlings on the Beach hard pack near the Majestic Condominiums. The officers carefully retrieved all of the hatchlings and placed them on the shoreline. The Fish Wildlife Commission duty officer was notified.

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
07/29/16	Assist North Miami Beach	NE 8 Av and 167 Street
Narrative / Comments
While commuting home after working his shift, A Bal Harbour police officer observed a male on the ground who had just been struck by a vehicle. The officer blocked traffic, summoned Miami-Dade Fire Rescue and provided aid to the victim. The victim was not alert and not conscious and had sustained multiple compound leg fractures. The officer remained on the scene until the proper jurisdiction arrived and took over the investigation.

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
07/31/16	Assist Disabled Motorist	10300 Collins Avenue
Narrative / Comments
While commuting to work, a Bal Harbour police officer discovered a disabled vehicle in the roadway creating a hazard and traffic delays on 10300 block of Collins Avenue. The officer stopped to provide assistance to the motorist who advised she didn't realize her vehicle was low on fuel and eventually ran out of gas. The officer was able to safely move the vehicle from the roadway and transported the driver to the nearest gas station to purchase fuel for the disabled vehicle. The officer then assisted the motorist with refueling the vehicle.
