Weekly Summary Report

Weekly Code Enforcement Efforts

Narrative / Comments

Code Enforcement in conjunction with Public Works continues to check the entire Village for areas of standing water in regards to Zika virus prevention efforts. They continue to visit all construction sites at least twice weekly, maintaining contact with the contractors to immediately address areas of concern. All of the construction sites were found to be in compliance this week.

Additionally, three warnings for appearance violations were issued within the Gated Community. Two of the violations consisted of appearance issues related to maintenance of the landscaping. The remaining violation involved graffiti which was discovered on the rear wall of a residence.

A code violation was issued for work without a permit to a property located at the Lanai. An inspection of the property in conjunction with the Building Department revealed unpermitted plumbing, building and electrical projects.

Noteworthy Incidents

The incidents listed below are included in the above totals.
However they are sufficient interest to be noted.

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location

Weekly Summary Report

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
09/02/16	Domestic Battery	10230 Collins Avenue #1
Narrative / Comments
Bal Harbour police officers responded to a disturbance at 10230 Collins Avenue but were not provided with an apartment number. Upon arrival the officers were met by a tenant who advised he had an altercation with his adult daughter. He advised the officers that he pushed his daughter in order to get her to leave his apartment. The individual had some minor scratches on his face; however he would not elaborate on how he sustained the injuries. The daughter was not on the scene however the officers were able to make contact with her via her cellphone later in the day. She refused to provide any specifics and stated that nothing had occurred between her and her father. The officers documented the incident.

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
09/02/16	Assist Surfside Police	100 Block of 94 Street
Narrative / Comments
The Surfside Police Department broadcasted a description of a suspect that had committed a strong armed robbery on their beach. Upon hearing the broadcast a Bal Harbour police officer responded to the area and located a suspect matching the description issued. Further investigation revealed the individual detained was in fact the suspect in the case. He was identified by the victim and arrested by the Surfside Police Department.

Date	Incident/Arrest	Location
09/03/16	Domestic Battery/Arrest	290 Bal Bay Drive Quarzo Hotel
Narrative / Comments
Bal Harbour police officers were dispatched to the location on a disturbance involving several people fighting. Upon the officers arriving they discovered that an altercation had taken place between several members of a family staying at the hotel. The investigation revealed that a disagreement between a father and his adult son had turned violent; with the father being the primary aggressor in the incident. Other family members then attempted to separate the two individuals. The father was arrested for the domestic related battery and transported to jail. Both individuals were treated by Miami Dade Fire Rescue for minor injuries.
